What are the reported symptoms of nonhospitalized patients with laboratory-confirmed SARS-COV-2? Common symptoms reported between January and April 2020, among a convenience sample of 164 patients from across the United States, were fever, cough, and shortness of breath (96%). Other commonly reported symptoms included gastrointestinal symptoms, chills, myalgia, headache, and fatigue.

Nonhospitalized patients

- Cough
- Dry cough
- Productive cough
- Hemothysis
- Any fever
- Measured fever
- Subjective fever
- Myalgia
- Chills
- Fatigue
- Headache
- Shortness of breath
- Sore throat
- Rhinorrhea
- Diarrhea
- Poor appetite/feeding
- Nausea
- Chest pain/discomfort
- Changes in smell or taste
- Abdominal pain
- Wheezing
- Vomiting
- Nasal congestion
- Conjunctivitis
- Night sweats
- Rash
- Dizziness
- Arthralgia
- Seizure
- Any other symptom(s)

Hospitalized patients

- Cough
- Dry cough
- Productive cough
- Hemothysis
- Any fever
- Measured fever
- Subjective fever
- Myalgia
- Chills
- Fatigue
- Headache
- Shortness of breath
- Sore throat
- Rhinorrhea
- Diarrhea
- Poor appetite/feeding
- Nausea
- Chest pain/discomfort
- Changes in smell or taste
- Abdominal pain
- Wheezing
- Vomiting
- Nasal congestion
- Conjunctivitis
- Night sweats
- Rash
- Dizziness
- Arthralgia
- Seizure
- Any other symptom(s)